Hannah

One day, the royal family organized a parade. Many people came there and looked forward to seeing the new Queen. A moment later, Queen Cinderella appeared. She was sitting in a royal carriage with a fancy dress and a pair of glass shoes. She was happy to go in the parade, but didn't know her ruby pink sparkling crown had dropped.

Anastasia saw that Cinderella's ruby crown was lost. She remembered Cinderella's kindness and decided to help her stepsister. So Anastasia ran back along the road, passed through the bustling crowd to find the crown. Sometime, the crowd pushed and shoved Anastasia. She thought she couldn't find the crown, and it might be lost forever.

Then fairy saw Anastasia's kindness. She used her magic wand to make the ruby pink crown twinkle more. Suddenly, Anastasia saw a pink beam of light. It was exactly the same color as Cinderella's crown. She rushed over to see it and exclaimed, "This is Cinderella's crown!"

She ~~was~~ very happy, and ran as fast as she could to Cinderella. Anastasia put the shiny ruby pink crown on the Queen's head. They had a big hug together. The crowd cheered and bowed, "Queen Cinderella! Queen Cinderella!"

Once again, the fairy waved her magic wand and gave rays of kindness and good fortune to everyone there.
